er citizens the least.

The board stated that many of the answers had been a complete surprise.

Williams said that a copy of the questions and answers would be published shortly so all citizens could be informed of the results.

T. E. Pittman, resident engineer, Va. Highway Department, presented before the board the lists of new road additions and those rejected this year. Along with Emmitt McCraw they reviewed all proposals. The three roads accepted were: beginning at the intersection of Rt. 694 and 644 running Southwesterly 0,55 miles to a deadend for an estimated cost of $5,600; beginning at a point on Rt. 644 0,23 mi. north of Rt. 26 and running westerly to deadend for 0,10 mi. at an estimated $1,300; and beginning at end of maintenance of Rt. 637 and running easterly 0,12 mi. to deadend at an estimated $1,475 for a total cost of $6,381.00.

Those rejected because of insufficient traffic volume or because they were part of a subdivision were: beginning at end of maintenance of Rt. 1009 running northeasterly 0,06 mi. to deadend; beginning of point on Rt. 681 0.65 mi. west of Rt. 726 running southerly 0,22 mi. to deadend; beginning at point on Rt. 721 0,13 mi. north of Rt. 608 running west 0.15 mi.; and beginning at end of maintenance of Rt. 711 running southeasterly 0.25 mi. to deadend. These proposals would have cost an estimated $6,250 total.

The board announced at this time a letter of appreciation would be sent to John Henry Phillips who had been employed by the Va. Highway Department and recently has been Lynchburg District Engineer. Phillips will be retiring July 30 of this year after giving forty-three years of service to the department.

Percy Johnson, representing a group of interested citizens appeared before the board requesting information concerning the appointment of a black member of the community to the Appomattox County School Board as a Member-At-Large. The supervisors referred Mr. Johnson's request to the school board and the electorial board who will report to Johnson sometime before the next board meeting. H. G. Lawson, legal advisor for the board, stated that another member-at-large could be appointed, but, the question was there a need for more members. No decisions could be made at this time.

Lawson requested the supervisors to allow him to set a system to assist attorneys and councilors with the county records. His plan would be to set information at the clerk's office by magisterial line-up rather than voting districts. Then if voting district lines were to be changed due to a shift in population of a district the voting line could be changed without affecting the magisterial lines. Lawson stated many attorneys have been making these changes in other counties. Whereas the voting lines could be flexible the other would be set and checking deeds and property lines in years to com e would be simpler. The board so moved to do so.

In other action the supervisors denied a request from the Welfare Department for a county car decidin g the present method be continued.

The board approved the purchase of a calculator, typewriter, chair, and pinfeeder (attachment for working tax forms) to Ida Belle Campbell, County Treasurer, for the county's two-thirds share of cost, of $565.10.

The board also authorized the burning of old checks and turned down the request of the sheriff's department for a full time secretary.

In closing the board decided to show their appreciation they would send a letter of gratitude to Martha Stimpson and a resolution to Harry Gordon Lawson. Mrs. Stimpson has for years covered the board meetings for the Times-Virginian newspaper and Harry Lawson has been legal advisor to the board. Both will be moving shortly from the area.

The Pastor Speaks

"FOR FATHERS ONLY"

Eph. 6:4 . . "And ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord."

Dads, tarring accidents you'll be the only Father your son will ever have. So, you'd better be a good one. You'll be the only window to the world your son will ever have in the way of a father. For him much of life will be seen as he sees it through you.

Family wise . . . Socially . . . Sports . . . love . . . financially . . . his only Father. But most important, Spiritually.

EPH. 6:4 "And ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord." That's your job. Not your wifes. Your job Dad, not your wifes. The Christian home will regain its rightful Godly backbone when Dads resume their place they have the most time given up -- as the spiritual head of the house. It's strange but true, that when Dad resumes his clerical place everything else falls in place better. Remember you're the only Father your child or children will ever have. You'd better be a good one. May it be said of you as was said of Abraham in Gen. 18:19, "For I know him and that he will command his children and household after him and they shall keep the way of the Lord to do justice and judgment." Pull out your Bible on Father's Day. Gather the family around, read some verses, ask your children and wife what prayer request they have. Then voice them to God as you lift your family heavenward as the Spiritual head of your home.

Your congregation needs you. But this is a tall order, Dad. It requires a man who knows God for himself. A man who has made peace with God through the way of the cross. Have you received that Peace? Have you settled things with your Heavenly Father? Then and only then can you be a good earthly Father.

"Blessed is everyone that feareth the Lord, that walketh in his ways. For thous shall eat the labor of thine hands happy shalt thou be and it shall be well with thee. Thy wife shall as a fruitful vine by the sides of thy house. Thy children like olive plants round about thy table. Behold that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the Lord." Psal. 128:1-4.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

"AND WHEN YOU PRAY"

Lesson for June 18, 1972

Background Scripture: Matthew 6:1-15.
Devotional Reading: Isaiah 55: 1-6.

Jesus was unimpressed with the quality of prayer that he observed wherever he went. When he saw men pray, he found negative illustrations for his disciples on "how not to pray." Hypocritical religious leaders, he observed, made a great show of praying in public places. But, though they called it "prayer," it was not.

Your Father Knows

Perhaps Jesus would not be too impressed with what passes as "prayer" today in many places. Prayer, for many people, is, as it was for the hypocrites and Gentiles of Jesus' day, a pious form rather than a vital transaction. Many people may "say their prayers," but they do not pray, they do not do anything more than "go through well rehearsed motions."

The problem may be that we do not understand any better the nature of prayer than the people of Jesus' own day. Jesus told his disciples: "... your Father knows what you need before you ask him." Too many people seem to think that the object of prayer is to persuade a reluctant or inattentive God to bless us in some way. Thus our prayers may be attempts either to get his attention, or to persuade him that we've got a legitimate request.

Jesus, however, always prayed with the assumption that it was already God's will and intention to give him what he needed. His purpose, thus, was not to persuade God to give, but to open himself to be able to receive. Jesus did not mean that it is wrong or useless to ask, but asking is for our sake. Its purpose is not to inform or persuade God of our needs, but to enable ourselves to receive what God already wants to give to us.

Pray Then Like This

The problem with prayer, then, Jesus was indicating, is not a reluctant Giver, but an unreceptive receiver.

Jesus gave his disciples a model prayer after which they should fashion their own prayers. It is the style or the attitude of what we call "The Lord's Prayer," not the words themselves that are most important. In the model prayer God comes first. The prayer puts himself completely in God's hands and trusts his grace. He does not hesitate to ask specifically for his daily food or for forgiveness or from the power of evil, but he does this out of an attitude that presupposes that this is precisely what God desires to give him . . . and will give to him if he will but humbly and expectantly receive it.

What Jesus said on prayer to his disciples almost two thousand years ago also to us. Based on the outline used by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A. Released by Community Press Service.

"Checking accounts are too complicated."

Besides, I don't feel easy in a bank."

A lot of people think checking accounts are more trouble than they're worth. Which is a shame. Because the truth is just about anybody can handle money better with the help of a Fidelity checking account. It's easy to open, easy to use, and it makes keeping track of your money as simple as 1,2,3.

With checks you know where your money is going. You waste less. And you save more. Best of all, it doesn't have to cost you a cent. So stop in and ask about a checking account of your own. You'll feel welcome and you'll get straight answers to your questions. One more thing. At Fidelity, we're an easy going group. Very informal. So come as you are.
